Timeless Elegance in Historic Balmville...

Drive-up appeal galore—this stately Queen Anne estate sits majestically atop a hill in one of Balmville’s most sought-after neighborhoods, with the grandest front porch in town. The current owner hosted two intimate weddings on this expansive veranda, a true testament to its charm and scale.

Located in the storied hamlet of Balmville—one of the Hudson Valley’s most prestigious enclaves—this home continues the tradition of grand estates that have long defined the area. Known for its rich history and sweeping views of the Hudson River, Balmville has been home to generations of the region’s most prominent figures, who built stately residences along its quiet, tree-lined streets. This property proudly carries that legacy forward, offering timeless elegance with modern comforts.

The first floor features a gracious, flowing layout with soaring ceilings and abundant natural light. A true chef’s eat-in kitchen is complemented by a classic Butler’s pantry, leading seamlessly into a spacious formal dining room. A wall of French windows opens onto a deck overlooking the beautifully landscaped grounds—perfect for entertaining or simply enjoying peaceful mornings.

An elevator beside the grand staircase provides access to the second floor, where a cozy communal lounge leads to sun-drenched bedrooms, two full baths, ample storage space, and large back porch.

A private entrance leads to a fully renovated top-floor loft-style apartment with a brand-new kitchen and bathroom—ideal for guests, extended family, or income potential. Outside, the fenced yard includes a custom-built shed and a rare gem: a luxurious private outdoor shower. The sweeping driveway to home is landscaped with mature trees, perennial blooms, and thoughtfully designed greenery.

This home offers unmatched character, modern amenities, and excellent income-producing history.

Walking distance to the Powelton Club and Mid-Hudson Orchid Society meetings, and just moments from the Newburgh Beacon Bridge, Newburgh Yacht Club, and a vibrant scene of cultural destinations and acclaimed restaurants.

A one-of-a-kind estate that blends heritage, elegance, and lifestyle.
