Youâ€™ll be sitting on top of the world in this jaw-dropping Mediterranean home. Savor amazing and expansive year-round views of the Hudson River, the Palisades, and even the shimmering NYC skyline! Located in aptly-named Riverview Manor in Hastings, this 1926 4-BR beauty has been renovated by prominent local architects from top to bottom to take advantage of the amazing vistas. A captivating living room with wood-burning fireplace and its adjacent dining room were transformed in 2021 to allow views and light to permeate the entire open-plan main level, with glimpses of the river in the winter and dramatic signature sunsets all year long. French doors and flanking picture windows create a wall of glass focusing on glorious greenery in the private and picturesque rear yard, providing access to a marvelous full-width covered back porch from which to enjoy it all. Modern updates include a top-of-the-line eat-in kitchen with high-end stainless appliances, a sweeping Quartz counter, and a wide window seat for Hudson-facing informal meals. On the second level, discover an enormous and versatile bedroom suite (suitable for 2nd primary, home office, or family room), featuring walk-in closet, sunlit ensuite bath, and French doors to its own porch overlooking the river. Two bright corner bedrooms with walk-in closets complete this level. The jewel in the crown is the homeâ€™s 4th bedroom: a separate third-level primary suite sanctuary! Besides the spectacular river views from both the soaring bedroom and its luxurious bath, discover an extraordinary full-width covered porch – your own heavenly lookout over the vast Hudson River Valley and the sparkling skyscrapers of Manhattan! When you feel like leaving the serenity of this special home, leave the car in the attached garage and stroll to the neighborhood clay tennis courts, the Aqueduct trail, or Zinsser Park, all just minutes away. Award-winning schools and a 33-minute express train ride to NYC make this exquisite gem a truly unique Rivertowns retreat!
